ADDITIONAL COUNCIL BLUFFS

The Board of Trade. The board of trade mot in adjourned session at the rooms last evening, with President Wells in the chair. A letter from J. B. Philippi, general manager of the Missouri Pacific, was read, stating that the directors of that road were opposed to doing anything at present regarding the through billing of Council Bluffs freight over that line, or the establishment of a joint office in this city.

of a joint office in this city.

A resolution was adopted expressing the favor and co-operation of the board in the world's exposition to be held in Washington in 1892, commemorating the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus.

Mr. Liedentepf suggested that an attempt be made to secure the relocation of the Omaha barracks on this side of the river. The president stated that a committee had been appeinted to attend to that matter, and that the commissioners who will select a site will be in the city to-day for the purpose of looking over the localities proposed on this side of the river.

The depot committee was requested to see

The depot committee was requested to see how much additional stock could be subscribed toward purchasing grounds for the proposed new union depot outside of subscribed donations.

The following resolutions regarding the death of E. E. Harkness were adopted:

Whereas, in the full tide of his manhood; our late associate, Mr. E. E. Harkness, has been removed from our midst; and been removed from our midst; and Whereas. This association held him in high esteem, both for his noble traits of character and his business ability, as well as for the ever ready encouragement he was at all times ready to extend in matters originating with this association and appertaining to the public welfare; therefore be it Resolved. That in the death of Mr. E. E.

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. E. E. Harkness the city has been deprived of an estimable, public spirited citizen and an honorable business man, and this association of an honored member. That we deplore his less and shall ever regret his absence.

That we extend to the family of our deceased associate the profound condelence of this board of trade, by every member of which he was held in high esteem. That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the family of our deceased friend and spread upon the minutes of this association, and that the board shall attend the fu-neral in a body. Samuer, Haas, F. H. Hill. WM. SIEDENTOFF, Committee on Resolutions The board then adjourned until Tuesday evening, December 18. The Jail Breakers Again.

Late last evening Mr. Parsons, from Killer's sand bank, came into the city and hunted up Captain Anderson, to whom he gave the following facts: At a late supper time Thursday evening three men came to the "bank boarding house" and asked for supper. It was furnished them, but they refused to pay for it and acted very strange. Some of the men followed them a ways after they left the house, but soon returned. During the night the foreman was awakened by the crashing in of the door. Before he could disengage himself from the bed clothing they were upon him. He succeeded in reaching a hatchet and a desperate fight ensued. They proved to be the three man who were there earlier in the evening. Their numbers were more than a match for any one man single-handed, and he was badly beaten up. After a desperate fight he succeeded in beating them off and they fied.

The description given of the men is that of the two men who burglarized Moore & Kip-linger's cigar store, and the confidence man who let the gang out of the county jail. Offi-cer Anderson had left the same place some hours before, and was close upon their yesterday seeing about some of his property in Ferry addition. There are a number of persons, who are known as squatters, and who long ago settled near the river and who now make some claim to the land. Recently the city council ordered the streets and alleys to be opened up, and this was done just before Thanksgiving. It appears that these squatters took legal advice of Attorney Mahoney, of Omaha, and proceeded to fence in the blocks. They left the streets open, but fenced in the alleyways. Yesterday Kimball and L. Suit, charging them with maintaining a nuisance and obstructing the alleys. The cases are to come up before Judge Aylesworth on Monday.

Rescue to the Front.
The meeting called for last evening of the Firemen's association at the city hall was postponed until next Thursday evening, as the majority of the firemen wished to attend the meeting at No. 3 hose house, where the members of the old Rescue hose company met to reorganize an amateur team. It had been the intention to organize under another name, so as to avoid the record of the old team, but after talking the matter over, the old volunteers decided to stand by their pet organization of former years, and the new team was christened the "Rescue No.3" amid great enthusiasm. Philip Betts was elected captain. The company will not em-ploy professionals, but will put a strictly Council Bluffs team in the field.

The Same Old Game.

William Arnold, a guileless young man hailing from Mackin county, Missouri, came in here yesterday. He had a far off look of despondency and told what was to him a sorrowful story. Arnold has been all summer working on a farm near Sioux City. On the train he met what he described as a "real elegant gentleman." The latter soon made encroaches on the confidences of the young man by pretending to know one of his neighbors. He succeeded in obtaining $40 with which to pay the charges on some goods at the depot. After obtaining the money Streatham had an engagement around the corner for a short time and Arnold is anxiously waiting his re-turn. When last heard of Arnold was on his way to Omaha via the new bridge. From there he will pursue the villian. Objects to Brown

Mrs. Ada C. Brown, wife of J. M. Brown, has filed a petition for divorce. She alleges desertion and adultery. He is the Brown who skipped out last week with Dollie Armstrong. Up to date the recreant husband has not appeared where the officers could catch a glimpse of him. He has written once here to the office of the White Sewing Machine company, of which he was man-ager. He carefully avoided giving any clue to his whereabouts, even by the post-mark. He stated that he regretted his con-duct and did not realize that he was getting into any such trouble. into any such trouble.

Two Plead Guilty.
The district court held a short session yes terday morning and adjourned until next Tuesday. Lewis Stewart and William Grady were brought into court and both pleaded puilty, the former to resisting an officer, and the latter to assault with intent to do great bodily injury.
